WHY?

with so much going on in the life of a teacher....
...why pursue National Board Certification?

Great question!

And the answer may surprise you!

First, it is an opportunity to take back our own professional development. Relying on our self-direction yields the best results!

We also know, mastering our craft of teaching is satisfying and rewarding. We all have the urge to get better, and even better...

CHALLENGE
+ MASTERY
+ MAKING A CONTRIBUTION

And, it gives my work purpose which makes me feel great!

The National Board process can offer you all three!

Autonomy over your own professional development, work towards mastering the craft of teaching, as well as making a contribution to improve your students' growth!

So join us today!
