JOIN US

Join a community of 120 teachers from across the nation as a member of our first pilot cohort. Participate in a 12-week online course and offer feedback on our learning design, dialog with colleagues from various states, schools, grade levels, and content areas, and enjoy the support of a refugee educator facilitator/coach throughout the 2019-2020 school year.

COURSE TOPICS TO INCLUDE

- Understanding refugee resettlement and refugee educational experiences
- Culturally relevant, responsive, and sustaining pedagogies
- Social and emotional learning and trauma-informed practice
- Learning and instructional design
- Curriculum and assessment (including foundations in language learning)
- Advocacy and teacher leadership

AS A PARTICIPANT YOU WILL

- Develop your capacities to build safe, inclusive, productive learning environments to support refugee student academic achievement and well-being
- Participate in a diverse community of practice sharing resources and cultivating sustainable professional learning networks.
- Demonstrate your competencies through practice-based assessments, micro-credentialing, and an e-portfolio (optional)

LEARNING DESIGN

This pilot course is being developed using the Center for Learning in Practice's Sustainable Learning Framework. Facilitation and coaching will promote reflection, deep learning, and integration of theory, research, and practice. Diversity among participants will offer opportunities for critical learning in dialog and from a variety of perspectives.

COHORT #1 TIMELINE AND REQUIREMENTS

Course begins mid-July and runs through October, 2019. Coaching and community discussion will continue through March, 2020. Expect to spend 2-4 hours online per week. There will be job-embedded assignments to complete with immediate, practical application. There will also be discussions to join, formative assessments, and opportunities to earn micro-credentials through competency-based assessments.
